

YOU ARE INVITED... FOR A TIMELY EVENT

TURKEY: AN EMERGING GLOBAL ENERGY HUB

Eighth in a Series of Events Focusing on Global Energy

9:30 AM – 2 PM

Wednesday, December 5, 2007

TAVERN CLUB

333 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago

9:30 Registration

10 AM Conference

11:30 Reception (CASH BAR)

Noon: Lunch

 OPENING REMARKS

Harry Lepinske, chairman, Central Asian Productivity Research Center

 AN EMERGING ENERGY HUB

Hon. U. Kenan Ipek, Consul General, Republic of Turkey

 BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES IN THE CASPIAN REGION

AND TURKEY'S EXPANDING ENERGY SECTOR

Mr. Abdullah Akyuz, President, Turkish Industrialists and Businessmen's Association (TUSIAD)

 "BAKU-TBILISI-CEYHAN PIPELINE"

 RECEPTION / One-on-One Meetings

 LUNCHEON SPEAKER: Turkish Consul General U. Kenen Ipek

"TURKISH FOREIGN POLICY: PRIORITIES AND ISSUES"

TURKEY: GATEWAY TO CENTRAL ASIA AND BEYOND

* A Bridge between East and West

* Geographically in close proximity to 70% of the world's proven energy resources

* Turkey is expected to achieve 50% of the EU's per capita income by 2014

ORGANIZED BY: CENTRAL ASIAN PRODUCTIVITY RESEARCH CENTER

www.caprc.org

SUPPORTED BY: International Press Club of Chicago

FOR INFORMATION: E-Mail: lepinske@juno.com or phone: 708-246-5556